INTRO

- New W3C Standard
- Allows reuse of components
- The standard is divided into four specifications:
 - Templates
 - Shadow DOM
 - Custom Elements
 - Imports
- A Web Component uses well-known technologies:
 - HTML
 - CSS
 - JavaScript

SPECIFICATIONS

TEMPLATES

- Defines HTML parts to be reused any number of times
- Define reusable parts directly inside of HTML documents
- Is defined by the new `<template>` tag
- Can be added to the DOM using JavaScript
- Unlimited number of templates possible

```
1 <template id="my-template">
2
3
4
5 </template>

SHADOW DOM

- Create an independent sub-DOM
- Not accessible from “outside” of the sub-DOM
- Avoids DOM collisions between components
- No side-effects of CSS or JavaScript between components
- Can be added to the DOM using JavaScript
- Unlimited number of Shadow DOMs possible

CUSTOM ELEMENTS

- Connect template and shadow DOM
- Define reusable components
- Create own tags to produce readable HTML
 - own tags need to include a hyphen
- Apply styles inside of the custom element
- Use JavaScript for interaction
- Throws lifecycle events: create, attach, detach

1 <google-hangout-button />
```

IMPORTS

- Outsourcing of HTML parts
- Create own HTML files for components (higher reusability)
- Add components to HTML documents using imports

1 <link rel="import" href="google-chart.html">
2 <google-chart type="column" data="chart.json" />
```

STATUS

Shadow DOM	✓	✓	▲	▲	✗
Custom Elements	✓	✓	▲	✗	✗
Imports	✓	✓	▲	✗	✗

Polyfills

1 bower install webcomponentsjs
2 npm install webcomponents.js

```

Libraries

- Polymer
- X-Tag
- Bosonic

WRAP-UP

Web Components...

- are declarative and reuseable
- are combinable and extensible
- are interoperational – DOM = common demoninator
- allow encapsulation – scoping
- increase productivity and accessibility
- are standard
- support thinking in components
